

Blueberries - 1 Gallon Potted Plant - $10 Each

Baldwin - A late variety ripening approximately from early July to early August. Plants are moderately vigorous with upright growing habits. Fruit are large, and very dark blue with a good stem scar.

Delite - A late ripening berry, normally in mid to late July. Plants have an upright growth habit and produce a sweet flavor that makes the perfect choice for fresh eating.

Austin - Large, flavorful berries. A popular variety for southern climates. Upright growth habit with good flavor and shelf life.

Centurion - Produces a medium to large fruit, darker than most rabbiteyes. Good quality. Good for fresh eating, outstanding jam, jelly and on ice cream. Ripens in late August.

Brightwell - Produces consistent crops of large, juicy berries that are almost seedless. The Brightwell blueberries ripen in June and July.

Asparagus - Bare Root - Bundles of 10 - $15/Bundle

Millenium - Top performing variety adapted to a wide variety of soils - even clay ones! Very productive with high quality, tender spears that have good flavor.

Muscadines - 1 Gallon Potted Plant - $10 Each

Sterling - A self-pollinating, bronze fruit that are medium to large in size. It has good flavor, high yields, and ripens mid season. Plants are vigorous, disease resistant, and have excellent cold hardiness.

Rubycrisp - Lives up to its name with a novel dark red berry with self-pollinating flowers. Ripens mid season. Berries have a firm flesh and crisp palatable skin, Vines are very productive with good yields.

Southland - A traditional Black Muscadine producing medium large fruit with good yields with very good flavor that ripens mid to late season. It also has good disease resistance.