Polk County Department of Health and Human Services Director Announces Resignation.

Polk County, NC – July 2, 2025 Polk County Government and Department of Health and Human Services announces the resignation of Josh Kennedy. Josh has accepted a position with another organization. His last day with Polk County will be July 27, 2025.

During his tenure, Josh was instrumental in advancing the Health and Human Services initiatives that benefited the citizens of Polk County. His dedication, hard work and commitment to improving the welfare of the community will greatly be missed.

“We thank Josh for his exceptional services to the Polk County Residents” said Polk County Manager, Marche Pittman. “His contributions have made a lasting impact on the health and well-being of our community.”

In the interim, the department has a plan in place to ensure a smooth transition and continuity of services. Leadership will work closely with staff to fill the position until a permanent replacement is appointed.

Polk County Staff wishes Josh Kennedy all the best in his future endeavors and is grateful for his years of dedicated service to Polk County Government and our community.
